

Kiwi Ranch - Curious Cove

Controlled by:

The Kiwi Ranch Trust

Contact:

Tony and Jane Ross,
Camp Managers
Private Bag 396, Picton 7250

Phone and fax:

(03) 573 6595

Email:

thecove@ruralinzone.net

Number of beds:

140 in cabin blocks, each room sleeping two or three.

Minimum number of 30.

Cost:

$45 per person per day or part day.
$30 return launch fee per person.
$25 per person for launch day trip.

(Costs correct at May 2011 but subject to change.)

Information pack available on request.

Location:

Curious Cove, Queen Charlotte Sound, Picton. Boat only access on our 45ft launch. The camp is situated at the head of the bay with a backdrop of native bush.

Enjoy one of our native bush walks or conquer Mount Kahikatea with its breathtaking views. Ideal location for water related activities - swimming, fishing, kayaking, snorkelling, plus your choice of launch trips to places of interest in the Queen Charlotte Sound.

Our spacious grounds are ideal for recreation and sports and all catering is done for you by our resident cook.

Facilities:

- Accommodation for 140 in 15 cabin blocks, each room sleeping two or three
- Separate ablution blocks
- Fully catered dining room
- Large recreation hall and separate games room
- Laundry ($2 coin operated machines)
- Paraplegic facilities
- Tea room

Activities:

- Launch trips
 - Confidence course
 - Flying fox
 - Horses (by prior arrangement)
 - Kayaks
 - Swimming
 - Fishing*
 - Maypole
 - Trampolines
 - Bouldering wall
 - Snorkelling*
 - Bush swing
 - Night line*
 - Playing fields
 - Orienteering*
 - Table tennis
 - Glow worms
 - Bush walks
 - Initiatives
 - Mt Kahikatea climb
- * Own gear required.

MARLBOROUGH SOUNDS

